VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1867. NO. 86.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

EXTRACTS FROM THE ADDRESS OF THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION TO THE PEOPLE.

We are not unfriendly to the negro. On the contrary, we know that we are his best friends. While he occupied the position of a slave, he was protected by the laws, according to his condition in life. And now that he has been made free, we are not only willing to confer upon him every civil right, but to protect him in the full and free enjoyment of those rights. In his property, in his life, and in his person, we are willing that the black man and the white man shall stand together upon the same platform, and be shielded by the same equal laws. We venture the opinion, that the people of South Carolina are prepared to adopt as their own the Constitution of any New England or other Northern State, wherein it is supposed that the civil rights of the negro are more fully and amply secured.—But, upon a question involving such grave and momentous issues, we should be untrue to ourselves, and unfair to our opponents, were we to withhold the frank and full expression of our opinions. We, therefore, feeling the responsibility of the subject and the occasion, enter our most solemn protest against the policy of investing the negro with political rights. The black man is what God and nature and circumstances have made him. That he is not fit to be vested with these important rights may be no fault of his. But the fact is patent to all, that the negro is utterly unfitted to exercise the highest functions of the citizen. The government of the country should not be permitted to pass from the hands of the white man into the hands of the negro.—The enforcement of the reconstruction acts by military power, under the guise of negro voters and negro Conventions, cannot lawfully re establish civil government in South Carolina. It may for a time hold us in subjection to a quasi civil government, backed by military force, but it can do no more.—As citizens of the United States we should not consent to live under negro supremacy, nor should we acquiesce in negro equality. Not for ourselves only, but on behalf of the Anglo-Saxon race and blood in this country, do we protest against this subversion of the great social law, whereby an ignorant and depraved race is placed in power and influence above the virtuous, the educated, and the refined. By these acts of Congress intelligence and virtue are put under foot, while ignorance and vice are lifted into power.

In South Carolina the negro majority, under the reconstruction acts, is much more than two to one. In most of the other Southern States the negro majorities, if not so great, are almost as decided. In those States where the white vote is in the ascendant the election districts have been so arranged as to take the political power from the white vote and cast it in favor of the negro vote. What, then, is the inevitable result? It invests the negro with absolute political power in each of the ten Southern States, and at the same time invests him with the balance of power in the United States. Nor is this all—the reconstruction scheme closes the ballot-box against the best informed and educated classes in the community, and opens it to the negro, of whom not more than one in a hundred can read a word, and not more than one in five hundred can write his name; and multitudes of whom are so profoundly ignorant as to be unable to remember the name by which they have been registered.—Verily, this seems to be converting a popular government, of which we have been justly proud, into a popular farce; and we should be content so to consider it, if it did not involve the issue of life and death to the form of government established by our fathers for the benefit of themselves and their posterity. If the object of the framers of the reconstruction acts was to degrade the Southern people, it is time for them to consider whether the degradation may not be brought to their own doors—whether the poisoned cup may not be returned to their own lips. But it may be asked, why do not the Southern people accept the situation and control the negro element? This question is much more easily asked than answered. In the first place, it may be said that the influence of the corrupt and intriguing demagogue, who will appeal to the passion and prejudices, has always been found to be more powerful with excited and ignorant mobs than the wisest counsels of the best friends. Besides, the foundation stone upon which republican government rests is that the elective franchise is to be exercised by a free, intelligent, and unbiased judgment; and whenever it is admitted that the franchise is to be controlled, or, in other words, to be made the subject of undue influences and of bribes, then, too, it must be admitted that republican government is at an end, and must, sooner or later, give way to such other government as may be forced upon a depraved and already corrupted people. But if it is proposed in advance to place the enfranchised negro under control, why confer the franchise at all? Surely the part of wise government is to prevent the evil, and not open the door to the mischief which others are admonished they must be prepared, by trick, or management, to avert. But why press the subject further? It is enough for us to know that this wild and reckless experiment comes home to the hearth-stone of every citizen, and involves life and property, society, liberty, and even life itself. Nor is this all. The courts of justice are dragged into the mire from their high position; our most intelligent white citizens are excluded from the jury, while the ignorant negro is elevated to that responsible position; the jury lists are made up from the lists of registered voters, which, as we have said, are more than two to one in favor of the negro. Not only, be it remembered, is the negro admitted to the jury-box, but the white man is excluded therefrom. Think you that when the great masters of the common law of England pronounced their encomium upon the trial by jury, that they contemplated for a moment such an instrument as an ignorant negro panel? Think you, that when the framers of the Constitution of the United States incorporated into that instrument the provision that the trial by jury should always be held inviolate, that they intended to engraft upon it such an enormity as negro jurymen, fresh from the cotton and rice fields of the South? Think you that when John Rutledge and his illustrious compeers signed that instrument on the part of South Carolina, that they intended to forge a chain which, in a period no longer than an ordinary lifetime, would drag their grandchildren, (who were then playing around their knees, and some of whom are now living,) for trial before a jury of their own slaves? Talk of additional humiliation, talk of confiscation, complain of clemency to rebels after this! God forbid! The Government of the United States has enforced against the Southern people the most stupendous act of confiscation that has ever been enforced in the history of nations; their property in slaves has been confiscated to the amount of three thousand millions of dollars; other personal property, in the shape of cotton, provisions, stock, plate, and money, has been captured or destroyed, to the value of one thousand millions of dollars; and from these causes their land has deteriorated to the extent of one thousand millions of dollars, making in the aggregate the enormous sum of five thousand millions of dollars. These overwhelming pecuniary losses fall exclusively upon the Southern people. The political evils complained of will, of course, fall chiefly upon the people of the South, but not exclusively upon them. Fasten negro supremacy upon the South, and it must be felt through all of her relations with the North—whether commercial political, or social. Should a Northern man—and how often must such necessarily be the case—be brought to trial in the State or Federal Courts at the South, his life or liberty must be passed upon by ignorant negro jurors. Should the most difficult and complicated questions of property arise in Southern courts—and how often must such be the case, arising from intermarriage, inheritance, or trade—the cause of the Northern man must be decided by the same ignorant tribunal. Nor is this yet all. The highest prerogative of government is the taxing power, and the efforts of the wisest statesmen have been expended to guard this great power against abuse. No power has been more jealously watched than this. No power has given rise to so much strife and bloodshed in the history of the world. The contest between the mother country and the colonies originated in her assumption of the right to tax without representation. By the reconstruction acts of Congress the taxing power is placed in the hands of those who own no property, and is taken away from those who hold the property and must pay the taxes. The war that has always existed between capital and labor is decided in favor of the latter, and the wealth of the country is prostrated at the feet of those who have nothing at stake but their daily wages and their daily bread. How will this power be exercised? Can it be supposed for a moment that it will be exercised in any other way than to impose such burdens upon the tax payers as will amount in the end to practical confiscation of the small remaining substance of our people? But we must forbear. Such are some of the immediate consequences of the reconstruction acts upon the people of the South and upon the whole country.

We have said, and we repeat, that we desire peace; but the policy now proposed cannot give us peace. It is contrary to the voice of reason and the law of nature. Instead of peace, under the reconstruction acts we shall have strife and bitterness. Instead of the South recovering from her poverty, and contributing her share to the commonwealth and prosperity of the country, she will become more and more impoverished. The blight of misrule will cut short her harvests and dry up her resources. The law of violence, which has prevailed for more than two years in reconstructed Tennessee, will extend its sway throughout the entire South, and we shall reap, like her, the harvest of crime and blood multiplied two-fold.

We have shown that free negro labor, the sudden emancipation policy of the Government, is a disaster from which, under the most favorable circumstances, it will require years to recover. Add to this the policy which the reconstruction acts propose to enforce, and you place the South, politically and socially, under the heel of the negro; these influences combined would drag to hopeless ruin the most prosperous community in the world. What do these reconstruction acts propose? Not negro equality merely, but negro supremacy. In the name, then, of humanity to both races—in the name of citizenship under the Constitution—in the name of a common history in the past—in the name of our Anglo Saxon race and blood—in the name of the nineteenth century—in the name of magnanimity and the noble instincts of manhood—in the name of God and nature, we protest against these acts as destructive to the peace of society, the prosperity of the country, and the greatness and grandeur of our common future.

The people of the South are powerless to avert the impending ruin. We have been overborne, and the responsibility to posterity and to the world has passed into other hands.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold and rag old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

CONSERVATIVE TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION IN WAKE.

HON. DANIEL G. FOWLE,
REV. BENNET T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM, Esq.
Dr. JNO. A. McLEAN.

OUR CONSTITUTIONAL UNION—RADICALISM AND SECESSIONISM.

We cannot too often refer to first great principles. It is a singular misfortune that, in times of revolution, men who acquire some consequence by their results do not know when and where to let the revolution stop. Maddened and frenzied by their success, they forget first principles, and drive on to excess, until the re-action becomes so terrible, that they are swept, as by a sirrocco, from political existence, never to rise again.

A few days ago, we published a short speech by Senator Doolittle, at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, which embodies, in few words, the whole gist of the controversy between the North and South, and points out the only safe and constitutional method of settlement. We fear our readers did not read all that speech, and we therefore desire to present its points again to their consideration.

All the difficulties of the Republic began in revolution—in a disregard of the Constitution, both North and South,—and all our difficulties are continued and aggravated by the same cause, by revolution and nothing else. Our safety and restoration depend upon taken the quickest step to find the Constitution. The ship—the Union of the Republic—can never find soundings amid the tempests of revolution; she can only find them upon the Constitution. There is firm anchorage and only there.

We want the following statements of Mr. Doolittle to be printed upon the rocks. They convey the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. They point out the disease and also the cure. Let them be pondered. Mr. Doolittle said:

"Fellow citizens, it is not my purpose to detain you for any length of time. I only wish to express in a few sentences two or three thoughts. The great, all absorbing idea, which under lies radicalism, is precisely the same idea which underlaid secession. (Applause.) What is that idea? Let us not deceive ourselves. Ideas rule the world. What was the idea which led the South into this rebellion? It was this: The Constitution has no authority over the Southern States against their will; They have a right to withdraw from the authority of the Constitution at pleasure, and therefore, after the passage of their ordinances of secession, the Constitution was practically dead in the States of the South. The people of the South went to war to enforce that idea. What did we do? We maintained precisely the opposite idea, to wit: That the constitution has supreme authority over the States of the South as well as the North, and that the States of the South should be made to acknowledge the supremacy of the Constitution. To maintain that idea we called two million of men to the field. We poured out our treasure and blood like water. To maintain that idea, we created this debt of three thousand millions of dollars. To maintain that idea five thousand of our sons went down to battle and to death. By the blessing of God we were victorious in maintaining that idea of the supremacy of the Constitution over the States of the South. When we, at length, after a long and terrible war of four years, compelled the South to surrender to that idea; when we compelled the people of those States, who made their appeals to the God of battles to decide the question between us, to surrender the controversy—when the South yielded and acknowledged the Constitution to be supreme, and that the flag of the United States was the flag to which they owed allegiance, then up rise Thaddeus Stevens, Charles Sumner, Benjamin Wade and other radicals of the North, to proclaim anew the idea of the secessionists, viz: the Constitution is no longer the supreme law of the land in the States of the South; that we do not hold the States of the South by constitutional authority; that we hold them by the sword and the sword alone: not under the constitution, but outside of the constitution, by a power which is above the constitution.

That is the idea of Radicalism. IT IS NOT ONLY AKIN TO, BUT IDENTICAL WITH, THE IDEA OF SECESSION. IT IS THE ESSENCE OF REBELLION AGAINST THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. Whether it is asserted by Jefferson Davis at the South, or Thaddeus Stevens at the North, it is a new rebellion against the government of the United States. We have by force of arms put down the rebellion of the secessionists at the South. We do not expect to be compelled to put down this new rebellion at the North by force of arms. We expect to put it down by moral power alone, by argument, by reason, by persuasion, as we have done in Connecticut, in California and Pennsylvania and Ohio, by the power of the ballot box."

Here is the whole matter in a nutshell. The South erred, encouraged by Northern secessionists and "higher law" men, upon the hypothesis that the Constitution does not bind men, did not bind the Southern States against their will; that the will of the people, expressed at the popular elections, is the "higher law" to which all other law, organic or statutory, must bow. Such was the one cause which involved the South in the dilemma, and this very doctrine is the sole cause of our present condition.

Radicalism assumes that the will of the majority, however ignorant, or maddened, or debased, is the law of the land; that such will, expressed at the ballot box, is the supreme arbiter, and nullifies Constitutions and every other form of organic law.

It is upon this plea that Congress claimed the right to fix the Howard amendment in the Constitution, or to enforce it—because the Northern people had sanctioned it.—But since the Northern people have spoken differently, how can it stand? The Howard amendment we consider worse than anything else proposed. It is the most unconstitutional of all amendments to the Constitution ever suggested. It changes the entire form of the government. Instead of a government based upon the Union of equal Federal States, it really destroys the essential prerogatives of the States, and places these essential powers into the hands of the Congress, thus giving us a consolidated, instead of a Federal government. And this Howard amendment is a part of the Reconstruction acts, besides, which is to be forced on us.

Some of our politicians show a remarkable obliviousness of the real design and meaning of the Howard amendment, when they evince a disposition to accept it now, and contend that the Southern people blundered in rejecting it. The Southern States never acted more wisely. The Reconstruction Acts, i. e. universal negro suffrage and military rule, are not the results of the rejection of the Howard amendment by the Southern States, but are the results of the adoption of it by the Northern States. The real friends of the Howard amendment believe that it gives to Congress the right to fix universal negro suffrage upon all the States, North or South. It is upon this ground that Mr. Sumner and others base the right of Congress to do it, because three-fourths of the so-called loyal States adopted it. The refusal of the Southern States to give to Congress the semblance of the right to give universal negro suffrage to the Southern States, by constitutional amendment, determined that body to force it upon us at the point of the bayonet.

The whole programme, from beginning to end, is revolutionary and is beyond the Constitution—violates expressly the powers conferred upon Congress by the Constitution, and is without warrant of organic law of any kind.

The only doctrine which can unite in harmony and concord the Union must be drawn from the Constitution. That concord was destroyed by the departure from the Constitution of the Southern States, provoked and encouraged thereto by designing Northern men. The government rightly claimed the power to enforce upon the Southern States obedience to the Constitution and the laws. This the war did. At the end of that terrible scourge, the whole South was ready to submit to the Constitution and the laws of the United States, and was ready to give any reasonable indemnity for the future. The Constitution and the Constitution alone can point out the only way to the proper adjustment of this matter. Appeals to the laws of nations on this question may do to trumpet men's legal reading, but it has no more to do with the settlement of the question than the Al Koran, unless you first settle the question, that the States had a right to secede. The Republican party denied this utterly during the whole war, but now, to justify its unconstitutional acts, it proposes to treat the Southern States as separate and independent governments, conquered by the United States. What a crime against the Constitution!

THE GREAT DUTY!

The great and solemn duty imposed upon every white man in North Carolina, who is allowed the privilege, is to vote,—to vote for good and true men for the Convention. Vote! If you would not have the State and her destinies placed in the hands of a set of men, who will use their power for the basest purposes,—for the supremacy of the negro over the white man,—for the oppression and degradation of nine-tenths of the masses of our white people. These men, seeing that they are scorned by their white neighbors, will take a mean pleasure in wreaking revenge upon them, and using their new ally, the negro, as the instrument of accomplishing it.

Rally, white men, from the sea-board to the mountains. Vote promptly! Do not defer voting until the second day, but, wherever you can, vote on the first day, and devote the second to bringing up the straglers. Use your own judgment on the Convention question, but let neither rain, nor storm, nor anything else but extreme sickness, prevent your voting for delegates to the Convention, who are hostile to the unhallowed and infamous designs of black-Radicalism!

COLORED CONSERVATIVE MEN.

We find that the opinion prevails, in Virginia, that a large number, say several thousands, of Conservative men of color were deterred from voting by the threats of the Radicals, and preferred not to vote at all, rather than to be forced to vote for the Radical ticket. These men will be ready to vote, in the next election, with the Conservatives.

We will not encourage discord and strife either between the white and colored races, or between the negroes themselves. But where there are colored men who are Conservative, and wish to vote the Conservative ticket, if they cannot do so unmolested, let them stay from the polls, rather than be compelled to vote in opposition to their wishes.

COOL EFFRONTERY.—We learn that Jim Harris, the negro nominee for the Convention in this County, unblushingly asserted, at Upchurch's, on Wednesday, that the Reconstruction Acts did not require the incorporation of negro suffrage into the State Constitution, as a preliminary to restoration. Harris was actually guilty of the impudence of endeavoring to hood-wink intelligent white men in this manner. At night, the matter was doubtless explained to the negroes in a League meeting. It is confidently asserted that, as far as the candidates had gone, up to Wednesday evening, (and they had well nigh made the circuit of the County,) not twenty white-black men could be found who would vote the Radical ticket.

WONDER if Mr. J. P. Andrews will vote for his negro colleague, Jim Harris. He said, some time ago, that nothing could induce him to vote for a negro for any office.

CONSERVATIVE STATE CONVENTIONS.

Conventions of the Conservative men of North Carolina, at Raleigh, and of Virginia, at Richmond, have been called to meet simultaneously, on the 11th of December next.

The time is a propitious one. The political hemisphere will have been pretty well surveyed, and the pilots of the situation will have made their reckonings. What to do, or what not to do, will be questions easier answered than at any previous period.

We are glad to observe that the great heart of the Conservative people of Virginia has at length been stirred. Their public meetings are great out pourings of the people, and they are appointing their first men, and a large number of them, to meet at Richmond, on the 11th proximo. Inactive and indifferent as they have been, they are no longer so, when, by their supineness in a great measure, the places of their Marshalls, Jeffersons, Madisons, Henrys, Gileses, Lees, Randolphs, and others, are filled by the Hunnicutts, the Underwoods, and the Cullers and the Sambos of this Radical age.

We hail a similar spirit in North Carolina. We hope the Conservative press of the State will ventilate this question fully, and that, in every County, where a meeting has not been held, one shall be called at once, to appoint delegates to meet here on the 11th. of December next. The business of such a body will be of the highest import, and we hope that a full expression of the Conservative sentiment of the State will be had on that occasion.

MAKE UP THE RECORD.—Remember that Jim Harris wants the daguerreotype of every colored man in Wake, who is a Conservative and wants to vote the Conservative ticket.

Let there be made up a list of every white man in Wake, who votes the negro or Black Radical ticket, after so plain a purpose to create a negro or black man's party by Harris and his co adjutors.

We want the record to be made. Such a list will be specially useful some of these days. We want two lists,—the list of colored Conservative men and the list of white men who go for the Black Radical ticket.

THE DEIST.—Mr. Benton Williams' own gratuitous confession that he is an unbeliever in the Divine Revelation, was not necessary to establish his infidelity. His neighbors also say that such are his sentiments and that he has repeatedly and publicly avowed them. Will the "Rev. Mr. Brodie" support him,—will he advise his flock to do so? How can the Rev. Stokes Franklin run with such a man?

IS IT SO?—We are told that as Mr. B. S. D. Williams was returning from Eagle Rock the other day, he was met by a gentleman on the road, when the following colloquy took place:

Mr.——Well, Mr. Williams, how are things going at Eagle Rock?

Mr. Williams.—Wrong—wrong; I don't believe I shall get a white vote there. As for the niggers, I don't think they ought to be allowed to vote anyhow!

THE NEW YORK Times (Republican) advises the State Conventions sitting and soon to sit in the South to frame Constitutions which Conservative citizens can accept, and thus extricate the Republican party from impending ruin. Congress, it argues, would thereby be spared an inglorious retreat, and the party, nevertheless, placed upon a more moderate and reasonable platform!

WE OBSERVE that Isaiah Respass, Esq., a gentleman of the most consistent Union record, and heretofore claimed by the Radicals, is out for the Conservative ticket in Beaufort. Thus it is with all whose Unionism has been genuine and bona fide. It is only the hypocritical and contemptible pretenders to all the "loyalty," who are to be found in the ranks of Radicalism.

BEHOLD THEM!—The leaders of the Radical party in this county are an ex-Secessionist and a man who voted against allowing the negroes to testify in the Courts! Their candidates are an avowed Deist, a man who declared he would never vote for a negro for office, a negro and a nonentity! Let Alabama and Virginia look to their laurels!

WHERE was the secret negro meeting held, on Tuesday night, at which the X. P. G. spoke? We hear that "Judge Fowle," "Judge Fowle," was the staple of the harangue. "Judge Fowle" has stirred the "faithful" no little. He will stir them a little more next week.

For the Sentinel.

MR. BENTON WILLIAMS.

EDS. SENTINEL:—The charge in your paper that B. S. D. Williams is an Infidel, or an unbeliever in Revelation, appears to be correct, as he, or no one with his authority, has denied the charge. The Standard says Mr. Williams is a firm believer in God and in His Son Jesus Christ. Did Mr. Williams authorize the Standard to make such a statement? No, it does so on the authority of one who says he has bought corn of Mr. Williams,—and that he gives good measure. Does the fact of his giving good measure when selling anything prove him a Christian? It is simply his own interest to do so. I would not buy from one who did not.

Many voters wish to see Mr. W. deny the charge over his own signature, or he will fall far short of his anticipations on the election day. Who would vote for an unbeliever in the Son of God, to represent them in any way, much less to frame a Constitution for us to live under? Let him deny it, if it is untrue. He has plenty of time to do so before the election.

A VOTER.

LEGISLATION FOR OHIO.—Representative Ashley has prepared, and will offer on the first day of the session of Congress, a bill designed to prevent the Ohio Legislature from re-districting the State. It provides that a State shall only be re-districted every ten years after the taking of the census.—The object of this bill is to prevent the Democrats in that State from so changing the Congressional districts as to elect next year two-thirds of the Congressmen.—Washington Star.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION IN ALAMANCE.

According to a previous notice, a portion of the Conservative citizens of Alamance assembled in the Court House, in Graham, on the 11th. inst., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the approaching State Convention.

Owing to the heavy rain the day before, Haw river and its tributaries (by which the town of Graham is almost entirely surrounded) were swollen to such an extent that a great number of citizens, who otherwise would have been present, were unable to attend. Yet many of the most intelligent and influential white men of the county were present, together with a goodly number of the colored.

On motion of A. H. Boyd, the Convention organized, "by selecting Dr. William C. Tarpley as Chairman and J. L. Scott as Secretary.

Dr. J. A. Moore then arose and explained the object of the meeting; he also stated that he had previously announced himself as a candidate for the Convention, but gladly embraced this opportunity of withdrawing from the field and would heartily support the choice of the Convention.

On motion, the Chairman appointed a committee, composed of two voters from each Captain's district in the county, to recommend suitable men as candidates.

During the absence of this committee, A. H. Boyd, Esq., was called for, who responded with some very appropriate remarks, containing excellent advice to all, more especially to the negroes, and was well received by those of that class present.

The committee having returned, reported, through their Chairman, David W. Kerr, Esq., that they recommended the name of the Hon. R. Y. McADEN; when it was moved that the choice of the committee be submitted to the house. Mr. McAden was then made, by a unanimous vote, the Conservative candidate for the State Convention.

On motion of J. S. Scott, the Chairman appointed D. W. Kerr, Esq., and Philip Crawford to wait upon Mr. McAden and inform him of his nomination.

Mr. McAden shortly made his appearance in the Court House and ascended the speaker's stand amidst great applause from the assemblage. He then, in a most stirring and able speech, accepted the nomination. He declared himself to be firmly planted on the platform of the great Constitutional Union party.

On motion, it was ordered that the Daily Sentinel be requested to publish the proceedings of this Convention.

WM. C. TARPLEY, Ch'm.

J. L. SCOTT, Secry.

THE ALABAMA STATE "CONVENTION."

One of Forney's pimps in Montgomery, Ala., has sent to his Philadelphia paper an account of the proceedings of the Alabama State "Convention," from which we take some extracts as showing the Radical programme in Alabama, which is intended to be the first State brought under the yoke of Radicalism by the "reconstruction" process. This correspondent says:

"The great fight in the Convention will be over the subject of disfranchisement.—There are two parties in the matter, and each one urges its plans as the best calculated to secure the present success of reconstruction and the future well-being of the whole people of the State. One of these plans is to disfranchise by name every prominent rebel. By this means only the most prominent rebels will be disfranchised, while those who are doing their best to bring about a better order of things, and who have accepted the situation, could be left out of the disfranchising ordinance.

The other plan is simple enough, and would only require a few lines. This is to disfranchise every one who aided and abetted the rebellion. These would be the Governors of the State, Senators and Representatives, members of the Legislature, and all other officials who used their official positions, or sought office, for the purpose of aiding and abetting the rebellion, and all who left position under the United States for the purpose of going into the rebellion. This done, it is proposed to appoint a Commission to consider the cases of the disfranchised, to hear testimony, and to remove the disability thus imposed, wherever it may appear to be warranted by the position of the disfranchised person. * * *

The remainder of the first day's session was consumed in perfecting the machinery of the Convention, in choosing Secretaries and other officers, and in a little passage at-arms between some of the members upon the question of inviting resident ministers of the gospel to open the Convention each morning with prayer. Several members contended that only loyal preachers could pray before the Convention, and as there were more than one of these in the body, there was no need to ask the rebels in town to do anything of that kind."

HOW THE SOUTH IS TO BE SAVED.—In an able editorial upon the meaning of the late elections the New York World says:

"The fact that negro governments are in process of organization, and that Congress may admit their representatives, does not vary the case except to render a degrading farce more contemptible. Certain it is that these bastard governments will not have the slightest validity. Within four months after the Presidential election a heavy battering ram will tumble them into shapeless rubbish. The Southern people will immediately re organize, hold new elections, oust the negroes, send their own representatives to Washington, and the House will at once admit them. The Southern Senators plus the Conservative Senators from the North will form a majority of that body, organize as such, and neither the House nor the President will recognize any other Senate. This course is entirely feasible, will be perfectly constitutional, and beyond question adopted if the Radicals are insane or wayward enough to recognize the negro governments after this great rebuke. The only thing that could prevent it would be acquiescence by Southern whites in the Radical scheme. Whoever expects that, is better entitled to a straight-jacket than a refutation."

If the Northern Democrats will stand up to this programme the South is safe.

SCHEMES OF THE NEGROES IN MECKLENBURG COUNTY, VA.—A correspondent, writing from Mecklenburg county, makes the following statement: "The negroes, we have heard from good authority, are now debating the question in their secret leagues or conclaves, whether or not they are to take our lands on the first of January next by violence, if the Congress do not give it to them as they say they have promised. The delegates elect from this county, John Watson and ——— Dodge, have so advised them. That we are to have a servile war, if some steps are not taken to prevent it, is as certain as that there is a God in heaven, and there is no time to lose in taking measures of defence. None of the negroes will hire themselves unless they get possession, without let or hindrance, of your entire plantation, horses, mules and tools. The negroes are all armed and the whites are not."—Rich. Examiner.

Senator Sherman ascribes the Republican losses in Ohio to the colored-suffrage question, there being such deep seated prejudices against the negro that they could not be reached by any argument. Mr. Wade agrees with him in this view.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

BEAR IN MIND,

That, on Tuesday and Wednesday next, the polls will be opened at 8 o'clock, A. M., each day, and closed at 4, P. M.

That, in voting for Delegates, both the Christian and surname must be given in full.

That no ticket will be received, that is not folded, and endorsed, in writing or printing, "For Convention and Delegates."

WAKE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of Wake County, at the usual place of meeting, this evening (Friday) at 7 o'clock. A full and prompt attendance is earnestly requested.

THE ELECTION.—We understand that C. W. Horner and Franklin S. Pierce, whites, and ——— Williams, negro, are the poll holders appointed for the Raleigh box, on Tuesday and Wednesday next.

By the way, next Monday is the regular day for the commencement of November Term of Wake County Court. We presume that the Court will adjourn over the two days of election. Otherwise, many voters will be kept from the polls, who may be compelled to attend Court; as every man must vote in the district of his registration.

We shall probably be able to announce, to-morrow, such regulations for the conduct of the election as have been consummated.

SCARCITY OF GRAIN—SOW WHEAT.—We fear that the great scarcity of corn and wheat in this State does not sufficiently impress itself upon the minds of our people. The cotton and tobacco crop made in the State will afford but little surplus cash with which to buy bread and meat. In some Counties, we learn, it is not thought that the breadstuffs made will last longer than April or May.

It is, therefore of the first importance, that a large crop of wheat should be sown. We hope our planters have already attended to this—but they cannot put in too much wheat.

Care should also be taken for the preservation of the sweet potato crop, this winter. The crop is a large one, and, if properly husbanded, may go far to relieve the lack of bread. Fall or winter planting of an early crop of Irish potatoes should be attended to.

"FOUR OAKS." A Novel; by Kemba Thorpe. Published by Geo. W. Carleton & Co., Broadway, New York. We are indebted to the authoress, through Messrs. E. J. Hale & Son, 16 Murray St., New York, for a copy of this book just issued from the press.—The authoress resides in Alabama, but is a native of North Carolina. The novel is a highly pleasant and agreeable one, totally free from anything merely sensational, and without any of those obliquities that make most of the novels of the present day hurtful to the public morals. It is one of those books that may be committed, unhesitatingly, into the hands of the female members of a family, or placed in the domestic library.

Any orders for this work, entrusted to Messrs. Hale & Son, will be promptly attended to. We may say, in general terms, that the public may always accept any publication that bears their imprimatur, or has their professional or personal endorsement.

CANDIDATES.—Dr. R. F. Lewis and Jno. T. Melvin, Esq., good and true men, are the Conservative candidates in Bladen.

Dr. Joseph D. Pearsall and Alexander Williams, Esq., have been nominated by a large meeting of the Conservative men of Sampson. Their success is certain.

Major Arch'd McLean and Alfred Jackson are the Conservative candidates in Cumberland.

A "PROPOSITION TO ENRICH SCOUNDRELS."—Among the causes for their defeat, which the majority of the Republican press are making recital of, is the confiscation scheme, which the Newark Advertiser, a Republican journal, calls "a proposition to enrich scoundrelism" in the party. They refer also, of course, to the mischief caused by the impeachment movement; by the attempt to regulate the morals of mankind by legislative enactments, and similar questions, which they now look upon as great evils; but on no subject do they put it stronger or with more truth than the Advertiser does in reference to confiscation.

A dispatch from Lawrence, Kansas, to the Chicago Tribune, dated the 8th, says: 'It is doubtful whether a single County in this State has gone for female and negro suffrage. The majority against the propositions will fully reach six thousand out of a vote of twenty three thousand."

When Sheridan taught school, he had in one of his classes a boy who always read partridges for patriarchs. "Stop," exclaimed the wag of a teacher, "you shall not make game of the patriarchs."

LETTERS OF "ITINERANT."

BEYOND THE MOUNTAINS, Nov. 4, '67.

"QUALLA TOWN."

The Cherokee Indians of this State have settled mostly at Qualla Town, although they are scattered over several Counties. It lies about fifteen miles from the State Turnpike, in a broken country. They have a large church, and are quite respectful and well behaved. These sad and lonely looking people enter church in single file. They sit very still, and rarely look up during religious services.

Their faces are painfully sad. They keep very distinct from the white race, rarely ever intermarrying with them. It is nothing but the pure Indian, the copper color, jet black hair, and broad face and prominent cheek bones.

They dress mostly after the fashion of the plain, poor country people, only clinging to the blanket and the moccasin shoes; the latter are made of deer skin.

The word "Squaw" may carry some poetry to the distance, but close at hand, it is a very matter of fact looking personage.—Imagine a low, medium sized looking copper colored woman, with very black, but coarse, straight hair, matted, uncombed, low down upon the forehead; very broad face, wide mouth; wearing a homespun dress, stitches half an inch in length, thread coarse; half covered with a blanket, a red bandanna handkerchief over the shoulder, dingy moccasins, and, excuse me, Democrest, no hose, and you have a Cherokee Squaw before you! I know not what Pomatum and Curling Irons might do for her, but just as she is there is precious little of the nymph about her.

A MODEL TAR KILN.

The people from the low country would be entertained by the method of tar making in these parts. A hole is dug on a little hill side, say ten inches deep, with a trench leading off from one side. This hole is filled with fat pine, and fire set to it. As the pine burns the tar trickles down the trench, and some of these tar kilns turn out as much as an entire gallon! These people up here would be equally entertained to witness tar making in the east, especially a kiln running tar by the barrel, and continuing this until from ten to fifty barrels were secured.

A MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

I was highly entertained at the breakfast table, recently, of an unsophisticated mountaineer. Birds were mentioned. "Well," said mine host, "do all birds have gizzards"? and it was said with some weight and soberness. We "allowed" yes; we think of course all birds and fowls have this instrument. With an emphatic nod, the old man said, "No, you're mistaken, buzzards don't have any; they has maws, and the maws is good for fits."

He who knows of any remedy for disease, and withholds the information from the public, is not worthy the gratitude of his race, but I note this down in my memory as the first instance in my experience in which the particular bird in question was ever introduced at the breakfast table. But mountaineers have stouter stomachs than lowlanders.

"EMIGRANTS LEAVING."

I passed a number of movers from Davie and other parts, on the way to Arkansas.—If they would stay at home and spend as much time and money on their land in Davie county, as they will have to spend in Arkansas, they would likely die as rich here as there, and when they die friends and relatives would bury them, instead of strangers. But truth always has a struggle before it gets to the light.

"EMIGRANTS RETURNING."

I have passed a number of emigrants on the road, returning from Texas. They went out a few years ago, but have come back far poorer than when they went.

"IMPORTANT TO EMIGRANTS."

I frequently see a hand bill posted all over this Western country, that I think is of doubtful policy. It offers all sorts of inducements to emigrants from North Carolina to the Northwest. It is not patriotic.—North Carolina suffers from no one thing more, hardly, than from a sparse population. The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. would do much more for North Carolina, if it would turn these bills up side down, and make them read right the reverse, and give us people instead of taking them.

A gentleman in Waynesville offers for sale three hundred thousand acres of Mountain land, at one dollar an acre—grazing land. Where are the people to fill up all such districts?

We have only to look to Europe, for facts relative to the capacity of a square mile for sustaining population. And whilst the denseness of population is carried to a deleterious excess in Europe, it is nevertheless clear that the country is capable of sustaining more people than now occupy our State.

With our advantages of climate and soil, over those of the Northern States, North Carolina could bear an increase of at least three or four times her present population.

And what advantage would it be to us to have this increased? Clearly the same advantage that any country would reap from having its labor capacity and its capital increased four fold. The loss of our labor not only opens the way for new labor, but it is indispensable that we have it.

Many thousands of the present cleared lands of North Carolina are now lying waste for want of labor, and they will continue idle until there arises a vast increase of force to till the soil.

"A NEW WASHING MACHINE."

By far the cheapest washing machine yet, has found its way into these mountain regions. A tree is cut down; a section of the trunk is cut off—say four feet long; this is split in two equal parts, one of the halves is excavated, after the fashion of a hog trough, four wooden legs are inserted on the back side of the dug-out, and the machine is ready. It looks very domestic to see a mountain girl with one of these machines, at the spring, sleeves rolled half way up, barefooted, raven locks dangling over a model neck, washing homespun frocks!

"GAME."

Wolves, Bears and Deer still linger along this edge of civilization. I saw yesterday the hide of a very large black bear, killed in the Mountains not far off. Wolves are more abundant. The Mountain trout is quite abundant; but true to their wild instinct, they are hardly to be found in those parts of the streams that border on the cultivated fields. They swim upwards towards the Mountains, and rather than live near the ploughman, even though the river be wide and deep, they retreat to the small eddies of the head waters, and even there seem very shy, ever darting away from the footsteps of man.

Pheasants abound on the "Cowee" Mountains. They seem not very shy. I got near one, before it flew. It grows near the size of the old fashioned chicken—not the Shanghai. It is brown, interspersed with black.

Deer are somewhat abundant, and venison is no rarity, if one may judge by the number of hides he sees in some localities. The Indians bring in the skins to the towns, and trade them for dry goods, reserving not a few for their own shoes. They make the shoe first of one piece, with a seam from the instep to the toe, and another down the heel. This is all. It is a simple bag with a hole to put the foot in.—After this shoe or moccasin gets somewhat set to the foot, they then fasten on an outside sole of thick skin or leather. They are very durable, as one may well infer from the fact that it lasts the Indian a long while in the chase.

The moccasin looks much better on the parlor table, than on the Indian's foot, covered with dust, patched, and a copperhead looking toe poking out through a worn hole.

"WOLVES AND HOW TO TREAT THEM."

Before the war wolves had become "thinned out," I learn, in the mountains. But owing to the absence of men from home, they became somewhat numerous again. They are very destructive to sheep, and have to be destroyed themselves.

The way the people rid themselves of them is as follows: A deer is killed, and the skin is covered with asafœtida and dragged through the woods. Bits of the skin are occasionally cut off and well rubbed with strychnine. The wolf has an uncontrollable fondness for asafœtida, and will follow the scent of it long distances, and eagerly devour anything that bears the scent of it and the strychnine is fatal to them, and large numbers have been killed by this method.

Enough, for the present, says the reader. Agreed. My horse's head is still Westward. ITINERANT.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14, P. M.

Forney is not a defaulter. He has a balance to his credit in the Treasury.

McCulloch has renewed his resignation, but was requested by the President to withhold it.

It is asserted that Gen. Sherman's visit refers exclusively to Indian affairs.

It is stated that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Chandler, positively retires at the beginning of the year.

McCulloch will recommend a new consolidated five per cent loan.

Commissioner Rollins' removal is again urged by the Whiskey Rings.

Only five of the Judiciary Committee were present yesterday. Their business was confined to one witness, regarding Republican government in Maryland.

Gen. Schofield visited the President to-day.

It is understood that the President has recommended Hon. Edwin Cooper, of Tennessee, as Chandler's successor.

Schofield and Grant had a long discussion, mainly, it is said, bearing on the expense of reconstructing Virginia, which already exceeds five millions of dollars.

Revenue to-day, $233,000.

The Judiciary Committee was engaged on the Maryland investigation to-day, without eliciting anything bearing on the question whether that State has a Republican form of government.

The impeachment investigation will be resumed in a few days. Col. Hillyer, and, possibly, Gen. Grant will be recalled.

Jno. W. Patterson, Assessor of Internal Revenue for the 4th District of Virginia, is suspended by order of the President, for misconduct in office.

METEORS.

DETROIT, MICHIGAN, Nov. 14, P. M.

Professor Watson, of the Michigan University, reports that he counted 1,500 meteors per hour last night.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14, P. M.

It is estimated at the observatory that 2,000 meteors fell within twenty minutes, about four o'clock this morning.

RICHMOND, Nov. 14, P. M.

Prof. Harkness, of the National Observatory, on special duty here, reports that meteors fell at the rate of 1,500 on this morning at 4 o'clock.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 14, P. M.

The meteoric display this morning was very brilliant, lasting several hours.

THAT CONVENTION.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 14, P. M.

At a caucus of the Radical majority of the Reconstruction Convention last night, it was decided to send a special messenger to Washington to ascertain from leading Republicans how far Congress will permit the Convention to go on the question of disfranchising rebels. And to-day the Convention, by a vote of 56 to 24, postponed further action on the franchise question until Monday next.

A resolution was adopted instructing the proper committee to enquire into the expediency of requiring former owners to pay the blacks wages for their services from the date of the emancipation proclamation, to May 20th, 1865.

An ordinance was introduced and referred, proposing to confiscate the part of the Selma and Meridian Rail Road which was constructed by the Confederate Government to aid the rebellion. The proceeds of the same to go into the educational fund.

An ordinance was introduced and referred, to abolish the State poll tax.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 14, P. M.

At about 12 o'clock to-day, as E. A. Pollard, the historian of Lee and his Lieutenants, was passing in front of the Maltby House, he was approached by a son and nephew of Henry A. Wise, named John and Douglas, each of whom fired at Pollard, one of the balls passing through his right arm, he having his wife on the left hand at the time. Pollard drew his pistol and fired but being unable to raise it up, on account of his wound, the ball struck the pavement.

The assailants came here this morning from Richmond to obtain satisfaction from Pollard for a letter recently published by the latter, in reply to a letter of Henry A. Wise, on Pollard's History of the War, and had previously declared their intention to shoot him on sight. Both are in custody to await examination.

Gen. Hancock's arrival is anxiously looked for by the best citizens, who are hopeful that he will correct the abuses of the City Administration.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Nov. 14, P. M.

The Pope, when receiving the French staff, said he was happy in having the French about him. He thanked them and France and Napoleon for deliverance. He grieved that Italy had sent as a vanguard anarchists with flags of rapine and devastation. The valor of the Papal troops had defended Papal soil, and the French came to crown the splendid defence. After referring to the Catholic sympathy, he gave blessing to the army, Napoleon and France.

OBITUARY.

Died at his residence, in Halifax County, suddenly, of paralysis, on the 21st of October last, ALFRED W. MOORE, Esq., in the 76th year of his age. He was an elder half-brother of Hon. B. F. Moore, of this city.

The writer of this had known him well for more than thirty years. He possessed a strong intellect, much improved by reading and study. He was a man of great personal integrity, and rigidly demanded it in others; yet he was charitable and forgiving. For many years he was a devoted member of the M. E. Church, South, and one of its most active lay-officers. Few Laymen ever understood better the doctrines and discipline of his Church, and none loved them more. He was an unassuming farmer, carefully eschewed politics or public life, though he might have adorned any position. His home was the seat of a refined simplicity and hospitality, and from his door the stranger was never turned away. His call was sudden, but we trust he was ready. Few men have left a wider circle of friends to lament their death. F.

At South Mills, Camden County, N. C. on the morning of Monday, 11th inst., Mrs. SARAH B. FERRBEE, wife of Col. D. D. Ferrbee.

At Pactolus, Pitt Co., N. C., on Friday, the 8th inst., CHURCHILL PERKINS, in his 64th year. He was a man of large and liberal views. Kind, hospitable and generous. For a number of years he represented his County in the Senate and House of Commons and was one of the leading representative men of his County. The death of such a man will be a serious loss in his community. Com.

Large Grape Farm For Sale.

THIS FARM IS SITUATED IN HALIFAX County, North Carolina, in a very healthy and pleasant neighborhood. It contains over of which 300 are in cultivation. The soil is well adapted to the growing of Corn, Cotton, Wheat, Grass and all the cereals. It contains

500 ACRES OF LAND,

3,000 VINES NOW BEARING GRAPES.

These Vines are mostly of the Scuppernong variety, and for 35 years there has not been a failure in this variety to produce to the acre. It is the most healthy, the most vigorous and the most productive of any vine yet discovered. 1,000 gallons of Wine may be made from ONE ACRE OF VINES. The Wine is said to equal any Madeira, and a Champagne Wine may be made from it. One single Vine has been known to produce TWO HUNDRED GALLONS of Wine AT ONE CROP. For eating, the "scuppernong Grape is far ahead of all others. The crop for 1868 from this Vineyard may be safely estimated at from 5 000 to 7,000 gallons. It contains, also, over of choice varieties, the earliest and latest; and also, a fine variety of

PEACHES, FIGS, PEARS AND CHERRIES.

This Farm has all the necessary Buildings, and is situated in a portion of North Carolina which is FREE FROM CHILLS and where the water is delightful, and the climate pleasant. The cold is never severe enough to injure vines, however delicate, and there is no need of protection from it at any time.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—(one tumor reached a large size.) The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever. &c.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine. W. A. DARDEN, Sr.

Wilson, May 14th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis." I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousands of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad letter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassiday, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,

W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 25th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

THE MODERN ARTEMISIA.

The noble queen of Caria sought
For royal woe a grand relief,
And reared a wonder of the world
In token of a widow's grief.
Rich furniture and costly stuffs,
High heaped to form a funeral pyre,
And in his silken robes of State
Mausolus burned with sacred fire.

The modern Artemisia stands
Before the world in grief profound,
Trading her husband's body for
The title to his burial ground;
Rich furniture and costly shawls,
Jewels and furs, and laces rare,
Then offers at their highest price
To soothe a widow's deep despair.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at each voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate to the Convention shall serve as a Judge or the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD AND NORTH CAROLINA GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs.

WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore.

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great Through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight

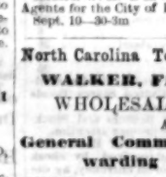
THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine



IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
